

A portrait of Claude "Deuce" Harris, Jr. featuring three images of him. The central image shows him from the waist up, wearing a dark blue button-down shirt with a white and red striped collar, a gold chain with a dog tag, and a goatee. He is sitting on a stool with a checkered pattern. To his left is a faded image of him wearing a black hat and a light-colored suit jacket. To his right is another faded image of him in a light-colored suit jacket. The background is a solid, warm brown color.

CLAUDE "DEUCE" HARRIS, JR.

SINGER • SONGWRITER • PRODUCER • ACTOR

ABOUT CLAUDE

Claude Harris, Jr. AKA Claude Deuce is a Stellar Award nominated artist, songwriter, producer, and actor.

As a composer, Claude has written for Grammy Award, Stellar Award, and Dove Award winning artists such as: Deitrick Haddon, Shirley Murdock, Monica Lisa Stevenson, Denise Tichenor, Sean Simmons, Lowell Pye, Marcia Chisholm, Tarisai Vushe, J4 Twenty3, and Christina Bell.

Claude traveled and performed in four countries as a part of the Jonathan Nelson Singers. Additionally, he's had the opportunity to play Auxiliary Keys, and tour with Grammy Award winning artist, PJ Morton.

Claude's solo works include the releases of multiple studio albums including his upcoming EP "Merrimac Ave," "39," "Super Friends," and others. He has also been featured on multiple projects.

As an actor, Harris recently made his acting debut in Lionsgate's 2023 Film "Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret?"

BOOKING CONTACT INFO

706.796.7880

YODEUCE@GMAIL.COM

CLAUDEDEUCE.COM

     @CLAUDEDEUCE